

AUSTSWIM candidates: Casual Assistant Learn-to-Swim Teacher

Have you just finished your AUSTSWIM and can't fully qualify until you are 17? Or are you still completing your AUSTSWIM hours?

We have the perfect opportunity for you.

Melbourne Aquatic Learn-to-Swim offers an assistant teacher program, where candidates who are completing their AUSTSWIM course after offered paid shifts to assist and learn in our teaching team. This is your chance to build your teaching tool-kit and have opportunities to see experienced teachers in action. Our assistant teaching team is the perfect pathway for you to work towards teaching your own classes confidently.

What do we provide?

- Casual employment
- We offer on the job training and paid shifts for candidates who are, at minimum, 16 and a half to complete your AUSTSWIM training
- Learn from experienced teachers whilst you develop your teaching skills
- Opportunities to understand how to trouble shoot common technique flaws

Melbourne Vicentre Swimming Club manages Melbourne Aquatic Learn-to-Swim, based in Glen Iris at Korowa Anglican Girls' School. For more club information, visit www.vicentre.org.au

The Right Candidates

Essential:

- Enrolment or nearing completion in your AUSTSWIM Teacher of Swimming and Water Safety
- Current Victorian Working With Children Check
- Current CPR
- Communication – effective oral, interpersonal and team work skills. Caring and a keen willingness to learn
- Organisational –organisation and problem-solving skills, strong work ethic
- Presentation – well-spoken in dealing with our customers and staff

Position commences: Immediate start available

Salary: Dependent on experience, age and level of teaching

How to Apply: If you meet the above criteria and have the drive to succeed in this role, please forward your covering letter (one page maximum) and resume:

Attention: Amanda Teh

Email: melbourneaquatic@vicentre.org.au

Closing Date: Ongoing